

Fire Warden/Marshal with use of Extinguishers

Number of Delegates:	1 - 10
Course Duration:	1 Day
Course Outcome:	Certificate

Introduction

This course is designed for any employee who may have a responsibility for fire procedures within their organisation. Fire Warden/Marshal training is essential to ensure that employees designated as Fire Wardens or Fire Marshals understand their role and their duties within the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005.

Aims & Objectives

This course aims to provide delegates with a thorough understanding of fire safety, associated legislation and the roles and responsibilities of their duties as Fire Warden/Marshal.

Course Delivery

This course is delivered through a combination of classroom based tutorials, including discussion, group exercises, supporting video and commentary, and practical activities involving the extinguishing of fires.

Location

This course can be delivered on your premises or at a location suitable to you.

Certification

Construction Skills People accredited certificate or NPORS Card/Certificate.

Delegate Eligibility/Entry Requirements

It is important that all delegates have a good understanding of spoken and written English.

Additional Information

If NPORS accreditation is required delegates will need to provide a passport photograph at the start of the course. NPORS registration is £27.50 per person.

Although this course includes awareness on Fire Risk Assessment (FRAs), it does not enable delegates to carry out FRAs or deem them competent to do so.

For training held at your own location, please ensure you can accommodate with seating the number of delegates attending.
